

CHRISTIAN BELIEFS

TCBC English Adult Sunday School
Main building, 1st floor, back chapel
Starting Sept. 16, 2007; 11:30 am

Contact: Sam Wong, samwsamw@gmail.com

Please answer the following:

Name: _____

Email: _____

1. Christians believe in creeds.	T	F
2. Theology is the "Queen of Sciences".	T	F
3. Theology is faith seeking understanding.	T	F
4. Faith is a rational act.	T	F
5. "Trinity" is not a biblical term; it is not found in the Bible.	T	F
6. Omnipresence is a subordinate property of God.	T	F
7. We didn't always understand God to be omnipresent.	T	F
8. God is not omnipresent; he is not in hell.	T	F
9. There exists a logically correct proof for the existence of God.	T	F
10. While illogical, the Christological argument for the existence of God wins the most converts.	T	F
11. Creation & reason contribute to our understanding of theology & God and not just scripture.	T	F
12. Sin is not evil.	T	F
13. Jesus went to hell.	T	F
14. Total depravity simply means we can't approach God ourselves.	T	F
15. People are not inherently evil.	T	F
16. The fall is a happy event because it ultimately shows God's grace.	T	F
17. Being moral and living a good life is not enough for God.	T	F
18. Faith alone is insufficient for salvation; God's grace is needed.	T	F
19. Not everyone will go to heaven.	T	F
20. Most Christians were baptized as infants.	T	F
21. There is an unpardonable sin that God will not forgive.	T	F
22. Pascal's Wager correctly applies modern game theory on why someone should accept Christ.	T	F
23. People have gone to heaven without knowing Christ.	T	F
24. Baptist beliefs differ from church to church, even within the BCOQ.	T	F
25. Christians cannot study the Bible alone; they must be in a church.	T	F
26. There are cults that believe in biblical inerrancy.	T	F
27. Biblical inerrancy does not mean that there are no metaphors and hyperbole in the Bible.	T	F
28. The Gospel of Judas is a historical document.	T	F
29. God is the father; church is the mother.	T	F
30. Closed communion means no-one outside the church can participate in communion.	T	F
31. We will see the Pope in heaven.	T	F
32. There is little theological basis for Christmas celebrations.	T	F